from the pharaohs to fanon dictionary of african biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped africa s history unprecedented in scale dab covers the whole continent from tunisia to south africa from sierra leone to somalia it also encompasses the full scope of history from queen hatsheput of egypt 1490 1468 bc and hannibal the military commander and strategist of carthage 243 183 bc to kwame nkrumah of ghana 1909 1972 miriam makeba and nelson mandela of south africa 1918

before the 2011 uprisings the middle east and north africa were frequently seen as a uniquely undemocratic region with little civic activism the first edition of this volume published at the start of the arab spring challenged these views by revealing a region rich with social and political mobilizations this fully revised second edition extends the earlier explorations of egypt morocco lebanon saudi arabia and turkey and adds new case studies on the uprisings in tunisia syria and yemen the case studies are inspired by social movement theory but they also critique and expand the horizons of the theory s classical concepts of political opportunity structures collective action frames mobilization structures and repertoires of contention based on intensive fieldwork this strong empirical base allows for a nuanced understanding of contexts culturally conditioned rationality the strengths and weaknesses of local networks and innovation in contentious action to give the reader a substantive understanding of events in the arab world before and since 2011 politics of interculturality fulfills the need for a thorough and critical evaluation of the notion of interculturality taking institutional and educational discourses on the intercultural as its main focus the volume captures vigorous debates currently underway across four continents the americas europe asia and oceania the volume s prominent and emerging scholars all agree that change is needed in the way interculturality is used and conceived especially at a time when the other is an increasing issue of social concerns and political debates the authors break with tradition by teasing out the hidden assumptions and implications of interculturality making explicit the implicit presence of the tired old notion of culture they also look to establish new ways of engaging with interculturality the book will be of substantial interest to a wide range of readers who are interested in international communication education migration studies critical race studies cultural studies anthropology linguistics and business undergraduates and novice researchers will also find invaluable advice on how to research politics of interculturality

the theme of the grss 98 emphasizes the role of remote sensing for managing limited natural resources it covers topics such as applications of remote sensing electromagnetic problems data processing techniques geophysical models and techniques and instrumentation
